Call to Worship

Liturgist: O God, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Response: These look to you, to give them their food in due season.

Liturgist: When you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

Response: When you send forth your Spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the ground.

Liturgist: Let us sing to God as long as we live, sing praises to our God while we have being.

Response: May our meditation be pleasing to God, in whom we rejoice.

Hymn (Instrumental)

Confession of Sin

Merciful God, we have cut ourselves off from the power of your presence, lest we be swept off our feet and be forced to see life from a new perspective. We have belittled those who speak with certainty of your transforming Spirit and turned away from any truth larger than our own perceptions. We are dry bones in a valley of dry bones. How shall we live? Amen.
